

A decorative border consisting of a repeating pattern of small, stylized human figures in yellow and blue, arranged in a grid-like fashion around the perimeter of the page.

Scholarship Opportunities

Listed below are some scholarship opportunities that interested people may look into:

1. Quittapahilla Audubon Society (QAS) – the QAS sponsors a partial scholarship each year for at least two local students and one local educator to one of the Audubon camps in Vermont or Maine. QAS will pay 75% of the camp costs and the cost for each camp ranges from $975 to $1050. Call Jean & Gerry Boltz at 533-6087 or go to this link for more information on applying and deadlines: <http://www.geocities.com/qasaudubon/>.
2. Lebanon Valley Conservancy, Inc. (LVC) – the LVC will award up to $500 cash to three Lebanon County High School Students who submit a worthy environmental/conservation related project. Stop by the Lebanon County Conservation District office or go to this link for more information on applying and deadlines: <http://www.lebanonvalleyconservancy.org/>.
3. Marie Ambrose Levitz Scholarship Fund – this scholarship will be awarded to Lebanon County high-school seniors, including home-schooled students, with an interest in conservation, horticulture, and/or environmental sciences, with the likelihood of pursuing a conservation, horticulture, forestry, and/or environmental career. Contact Trish George by phone at 274-6880 or by mail to Trish George, Fulton Financial Advisors, NA, 555 Willow Street, PO Box 448, Lebanon, PA, 17042 for more information.